RE: Motion for Leave to File Amicus Brief
The Boeing Company
Case No. 10-RC-215878

Dear Sir/Madam:

We represent the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce (“Chamber”) and the South Carolina Manufacturers Alliance (“SCMA”). Pursuant to the National Labor Relation Board’s Rules and Regulations, we request leave to file an Amicus Curiae Brief in this case.

Interests of the Chamber and SCMA

The South Carolina Chamber is a statewide organization and promotes business and jobs throughout South Carolina. Its mission is to strategically create and advance a thriving, free market environment where South Carolina businesses can prosper. The Chamber includes members of many industry sectors, including manufacturers throughout the state.

The SCMA is an industrial trade association, advocating for the advancement of manufacturing in South Carolina. The SCMA acts as an advocate for manufacturers’ interests at the legislative, regulatory, and executive levels in South Carolina. SCMA also works on behalf of South Carolina manufacturers to advance policies and provide services to help its manufacturers create economic strength and jobs.

Both the Chamber and SCMA have a strong interest in businesses and jobs throughout South Carolina. Both organizations also seek to attract businesses and jobs to the state. As discussed in the attached Amicus Brief, the Chamber and SCMA believe the Regional Director’s Decision and Direction of Election in this case is legally erroneous and an abuse of discretion, and should therefore be reviewed and reversed. Both organizations also believe the Decision will have a negative impact on businesses in South Carolina with integrated business operations.

Motion for Leave to File Amicus Brief

Considering the important interests of the Chamber and SCMA and the potential impact of the Regional Director's Decision on businesses and jobs throughout South Carolina, we move for the Board's approval to file the attached Amicus Brief in this case.

Sincerely,
